San Diego Trafficking Prevention Collective

The San Diego Trafficking Prevention Collective brings together three unique anti-trafficking programs: PROTECT, kNOW MORE and Project Roots to decrease the number of children being trafficked in San Diego.

The collective combines education and advocacy with targeted, interactive interventions in at-risk communities to protect children from exploitation. The collective is funded by UBS Optimus Foundation under a three year grant and is sponsored by the San Diego County District Attorney's Office.

kNOw MORE

kNOw MORE is a student centered human trafficking awareness and prevention curriculum for middle school and high school children from diverse communities in San Diego. It provides an interactive multimedia training for students and their families.

Through roleplay, discussion and information, participants develop techniques to recognize the red flags and vulnerabilities around trafficking.
